The Board has the power to make any decision in respect of COMENSA which has not been specifically reserved for decision-making by the Members of COMENSA.
101. The Board may delegate any of its powers to Board appointed committees consisting of such Board Members or other persons as it deems fit.
102. Each committee appointed by the Board must have a documented and approved terms of reference dealing with its composition; role and purpose, functions; delegated authorities; tenure; meeting requirements and procedures and reporting mechanism to the Board.
103. The Board or a committee of the Board may delegate to the management of COMENSA any of its powers upon such terms and conditions as is deemed fit.
104. Notwithstanding that it may afterwards be discovered that there has been some defect in the appointment or continuance in office of a Director or person acting as a Director, bona fide decisions by the Board or by any person acting in good faith as a Director of COMENSA are as valid as if every such person had been duly appointed, were qualified and continued to be a Director or were entitled to vote, as the case may be.

COMPOSITION OF THE BOARD

105. In addition to satisfying the qualification and eligibility requirements set out in section 69 of the Companies Act, to become or remain a Director of COMENSA, a person must be a Member of COMENSA, who is in good standing, or an officer thereof.
106. The Board consists of a minimum of 8 (eight) and a maximum of 14 (fourteen) Directors. These shall be the President who acts as Chairman of the Board, Vice President, Past President, the Chief Executive Officer (should the Board have appointed one) who acts in an ex officio capacity and Directors.
107. With the exception of the President, the Vice President and the Past President, all appointed positions are general directorships with no fixed responsibilities. Once the Members have appointed a Board of Directors, those directors will then agree among themselves on the allocation of their future responsibilities, including Chairs and Members of the various Committees established by the Board.
108. While the appointment of Directors is a fully democratic process, candidate Directors may be disqualified in terms of the Companies Act or this MOI.
109. As the issue of succession planning and continuity at the highest level is critically important to the well-being of COMENSA, no candidate will be eligible for appointment as President unless he or she has previously served one full two-year term as a Director, or has served as a Chair of a Provincial Chapter. This rule may only be contravened in the event of no nominee having availed themselves who meet the criterion of having served before as contemplated in this clause.
110. Provided that the Board has appointed a Chief Executive Officer, the person in that position serves as an ex officio Executive Director of COMENSA with voting rights. Subject to the maximum number of Directors as stipulated in clause 105, the Board may from time to time in its sole discretion identify other executive positions that qualify for ex officio Membership of the Board.

111. Once a President's term has come to an end she shall automatically move to the position of Past President. The position of Past President is to ensure continuity on the Board. A Past President shall have the same voting rights as an ordinary Board member and shall have no additional powers. The position of Past President is an ex-officio position and is not subject to the election process. In the event of the immediate Past President not being available to remain on the Board, the Board may co-opt another individual who has previously served as President, who shall serve as Past President until the current President's term comes to an end.
112. The process of appointing Directors onto the Board is set out in the Bylaws of COMENSA.

ROTATION OF NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

113. One third (1/3) of the non-executive Directors of COMENSA retires from office at every AGM. If the number of non-executive Directors is not three or a multiple of three, the number nearest to one-third (1/3) retires from office.
114. Retiring Non-executive Directors may, subject to recommendation by the Board, stand for re-election, subject to clause 114.

APPOINTMENT, NOMINATION AND ELECTION OF NON-EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

115. The Members of the Board shall hold office for a period of 2 (two) years, commencing on the date of the relevant AGM at which they are appointed, and terminating on the date of the AGM held 2 (two) years thereafter. They shall thereafter be eligible for re-appointment, but only for a further period of 2 (two) years (whether immediately following their initial term of office or not), so that a Member of the Board shall not hold office for a period in aggregate of more than 4 (four) consecutive years. The two positions exempted from this rule are that of the Chief Executive Officer who sits on the Board as an ex-officio Director and the Past President who may serve for an additional 2 (two) years post the maximum 4 (four years).

116. Members who have served on the Board for 4 (four) consecutive years, may avail themselves for election on the Board after a cooling off period of 4 (four) years.
117. All Directors shall be nominated and elected at the AGM of COMENSA.
118. For the office of President, each Member will vote for one of the candidates nominated for the position, and the decision will be made in favour of the candidate who wins 50% plus 1 or more of the votes cast. However, if three or more candidates contest the office of President, and the most popular candidate gets less than 50% plus 1 of the total votes cast, then the least popular candidate is eliminated and the voting held again, until a majority is achieved. In such a case, the proxy voters must be reminded to specify both their first and second choice. A similar process will be followed to elect the Vice President.
119. Any candidate standing for the position of President may also be simultaneously nominated for the position of Vice President or any other Board position, and if unsuccessful for the office of President will automatically be eligible for election as Vice President or any other Board position as per the nomination. This option shall be specified in the voting ballot papers where applicable.
120. Similarly, any candidate standing for the position of Vice President may also be simultaneously nominated for any another Board position, and if unsuccessful for the office of Vice President will automatically be eligible for election into any other Board position as per the nomination. This option shall be specified in the voting ballot papers where applicable.
121. Subject to clause 105, the Board may in its sole discretion co-opt and appoint additional Directors to its number between AGMs. Any casual vacancy occurring on the Board between AGMs may be filled by the Board if the number of remaining Directors is at the minimum or above, but must be filled by the Board if the number of remaining Non-executive Directors falls below 6 (six).

122. A Director who has been appointed by the Board in terms of clause 120 must stand down at the next AGM and may, subject to recommendation by the Board, stand for re-election.
123. Subject to clause 114, vacancies in Non-executive Director positions are filled by Member elections at the annual General Meeting.
124. Prior to the AGM, the Board by notice to Members calls for the nomination of candidates in the manner and in the form prescribed by the Board. The Board may review and amend the nomination process from time to time. A shortlist of candidates is decided on by the Board in its sole discretion for recommendation to Members for election at the AGM. In determining such shortlist, the Board follows due and fair process and takes into account eligibility and the skills, knowledge, demographics and experience requirements of the Board.
125. The Board includes in the notice of the AGM the names of the short-listed candidates, together with their curricula vitae and such further information as the Board deems necessary to enable Members to exercise an informed vote.
126. The Board has a duty to advise the Members in the Notice of the number of positions it recommends be filled. At the meeting, before the voting begins, the Members in the meeting must first ratify or amend the total number of Board positions available for election for the year ahead, and thus the number of Board positions to be filled at that meeting.
127. The nomination of candidates by Members is subject to clause 123 and no nominations by Members made outside the set process are allowed. Nominations from the floor during the course of the AGM will not be accepted.
128. Only candidates who have been duly notified to the Members are eligible for election.

129. Candidates absent from the AGM are not eligible without having rendered prior apologies to COMENSA, in advance of the meeting, together with sound reasons for absence.
130. Voting for Non-executive Directors is conducted by means of secret ballot.
131. A vacancy is filled only if a majority of the voting rights exercised support the candidate.
132. If at any AGM, at which an election of Non-executive Directors ought to take place, more than 50% of the offices of the retiring non-executive Directors are not filled, unless it is expressly resolved not to fill such vacancies, the meeting shall stand adjourned and the provisions of clause 88 shall apply mutatis mutandis to such adjournment, and if at such adjourned meeting the vacancies are not filled, the Board shall fill the vacancies subject to re-election of those Directors at the next AGM.

142. Subject to the provisions of the Act, a round-robin resolution in writing adopted by the majority of Directors is as valid and effective as if it had been passed at a duly called and constituted meeting of the Board or its committee as the case may be, provided that each Director has received notice of the matter to be decided. An adopted round-robin resolution may consist of multiple hard or electronic copies of the same resolution, each signed by one or more Board Members. A resolution of Directors passed in terms of this clause is presented at the next meeting of the Board or its committee, as the case may be, for noting and signature by the Chair of that meeting in terms of the provisions of section 24 and section 73(8).
143. If at any meeting the President is not present within 10 (ten) minutes after the time appointed for holding the same, the Vice President shall chair the meeting. If the Vice President is not present, the Directors present may elect one of their number to chair the meeting.

144. The Board may act notwithstanding a vacancy, but, if and for as long as its number is below the minimum required in terms of this MOI, the continuing Directors may only act for the purpose of increasing the number of Directors to the minimum number, or for convening a General Meeting of COMENSA.
145. No proxies or alternates will be valid at Director's meetings, although resolutions may be adopted by "round-robin" if deemed appropriate by the majority of the Board, subject to clause 141.
